The process is good and is yielding some great ideas.
ITEMS FOR INFORMATION

Wellness Committee Grant:
Nutrition Service Director, Sue Anderson and Jennifer Linder from North Colorado Health Alliance, spoke to the board about the wellness grant. Ms. Linder has been working with the district over the last two years as part of the $40,000 wellness grant. They reviewed the projects and involvement for this grant as well as identifying areas where we could use more support. The committee was granted an additional $100,000 grant over the next two years, which will be used to support mental health, nutrition, and parent engagement.

Bond Oversight Committee Report:
Members of the Bond Oversight Committee, comprised of parents, teachers, community members, staff, board, and owner’s representatives, provided their final report. Mr. Chris Ruff and Mr. Aaron Alexander were present on behalf of the committee. The group has been meeting quarterly since August 2017 with the primary focus of overseeing the 2016 bond and mill levy program. Through their meetings they reviewed construction updates on all projects, project bidding, draw requests and check payments, change orders, interest earnings and investment details, and master budget. The feedback from the committee emphasized a well thought out, carefully planned process that ensured taxpayer monies were spent as intended and that the needs of the bond program were successfully completed. They recommended communication be provided to all stakeholders.

Construction Update:
RLH provided the monthly progress report as part of the Board packet.
